Forgot to mention faith in paradise
I guess it seems far-fetched Another dream I had of bliss
But wait I'm in a factory That plays a character in a sitcom scripts that never change
One prison guard that never sleeps a wink enough to lend me to escape

Holding out for bigger dreams that never come

Climbing corporate ladders obituary trust for a buck
I'd trade a bit of dignity for experience Grudging trust

I hate it if their money says I can't sleep or even breathe Make me a desperate somebody I took the bait and sealed my fate
