Instill some insecurity in melodrama games prolonging issue parodies

Tomorrow's good enough for me.

I bet on the worst case of seasickness

Maybe I'll visit the moon just to breathe no air

I've had dream of musical mischief it seems

A language misused and unaware.

The lack of respect under a spell of blind eyes

And arrogant intervention ere.

Over your head I wouldn't go

Does it seem I've fallen or stooped ungracious fool.

Music leads lot's of different rides to fall and skin - your knee and then -

Get up smiling over and over again. . .

I did not.

Anticipate.

What went down.

But I do relate.

Blessed and disguised.

This same stride.

Over and over and over. . .

One up root to try and trip me up.

My glass half empty and I'll finish up.

Can't see my impression glow a red-hot glow.

Please just keep my impression gold. I'll hold it gold.

Lean on myself one more time. lost cause again?

My head more level than before. lost cause again.
