He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off

Some of us have talent, some of us just haven't
Some are super sensitive like Mr Spock
Chose my vocation, application
I'm an overnight sensation, The King of rock
Available for parties, Bar Mitzvahs and charities
Do another session, I'll be carried off
I have my creativity, thank God, my sensitivity
You know I really love my art
(We think you are a boring)
Knocked it off, you know I knocked it off
While I was sitting in the corner with my tracksuit off
I was hopin' I'd be playin'
But I never thought I'd be winnin' the game
You knocked it off. Yeah, I knocked it off
While I was standing on the goalline when the ball got crossed
I thought I'd have a go and shoot it
But I never thought I'd put it away

He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off

I made meself a million, had my house painted vermillion
But I'm still the same civilian, even talk to me pop
I'm happy to be playin', what's that you're sayin'?
There's got to be a limo to take me down the shops
Tell them they can stuff it, I'm not about to rough it
In some Granada Ghia, I was top of the pops pop folk are fickle when they get a little tickle
And they get a little sick when they get a little flop.

Knocked it off, you know I knocked it off
While I was sitting in the corner with my tracksuit off
I was hopin' I'd be playin'
But I never thought I'd be winnin' the game
You knocked it off. Yeah, I knocked it off
While I was standing on the goalline when the ball got
crossed

I thought I'd have a go and shoot it
But I never thought I'd put it away

To Maharajahs and kings show the door
Cause my Gucci parking place is secure
Buy a diamante personalised number plate, sure

He's going to have a cash

He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off

I knocked it off, he knocked it off
I was the flavour of the month, you get me in the shops
I was hopin' I'd be playin'
But I never thought I'd be winnin' the game
You knocked it off. Yeah, I knocked it off While I was standing on the goalline and the ball got crossed
I thought I'd have a go and shoot it
But I never thought I'd put it away

He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off
He knocked it off, knocked it off
