"Midnight Oil"

We rise form the dungeons when it's midnight hour
We get around falling in line and breaking ground
There's a power blade into let's go
Set the charge and it's ready to blow

Turn to light after night

Feel the flames
Fire fills the sky
Send the flames
Just in their mind, the burning midnight oil

We'll be dogs deliver lives by their command
There's a spirit in there, just can't comprehend
Sunk the charge, you get name
Take back the charge you blame

Turn to light after night

Feel the flames
Fire fills the sky
Send the flames
Just in their mind, the burning midnight oil

Feel the flames
Fire fills the sky
Send the flames
Just in their mind, the burning midnight oil

Feel the flames
Fire fills the sky
Send the flames
Just in their mind, the burning midnight oil
