(Verse 1)

What do you want me to say
I won't do what you do normally
How can I, explain myself to..
These people that all think the same
They can't see that life is a game you play to win
But end up giving in

(Pre Chorus)

Tonight I find a way to Sit back and relax and just let go
Of my pride of my life of my will to achieve
All the dreams that were planned and
Handed to me

(Chorus)

I can't wait until tomorrow
I don't need someone to follow anyway
And I've found that the sun will rise tomorrow
And the dawn will heal my sorrow from the rain

(Verse 2)

How can you really explain
A feeling that no words contain
But how can I, change I've tried to
See the world like everyone else
Sittin back they think of themselves
But I can't lie sometimes I feel the same

(Pre Chorus)

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

Tonight I find a way to breathe
Tonight I find a way to just let go
And I find, that the sun will rise tomorrow
And the dawn will heal my sorrow from the rain
.. Through the pain

(Chorus)
