"Somewhere Far Away"

You're the one that I love, my hideaway
In the night I can find my heart a resting place
From the world that can steal my dreams away
So I'm on my way to You

Take me to a higher ground fly me across your highway
Lord I want to feel the sound fly me somewhere far away

Through the cracks in the mirror I had to gaze
On the road going nowhere I felt the pain Realized that I needed a place inside for you
I'm on my way to you

Take me to a higher ground fly me across your
highway
Lord I want to feel the sound fly me somewhere far
Shake the stars all around fly me somewhere far away
Lord I want to feel the sound
Fly me somewhere far away

Late in my room - so real it changed my life
I can feel You keeping my dreams alive
Give me wisdom. Bright as the sun and moon
Leave the light on; I'll see ya soon
