Silly lilly walking over me,
Like a desperation goin' to explain,
Like a nightmare and a illusion,
She wont happen to believe that on me.

Waiting for a sign everytime she comes,
It's getting so unreal to
Believe that everyday.

[Chorus]
Silly lilly,
Never really liked me,
She told everyone,
That I was such a gay,

But silly lilly,
Thought it would be easy,
Her philosophy is
Being left behind because of me.

Silly lilly,
Walking over me,
Like an ordinary girl
That would ignore to pass the time.

But the nightmare
And illusion
She makes everything so right
It got me goin' everytime.
