Father can you help me I am dying tonight, the ritual begins

Misery, no escape, captivity

Misery, no escape, captivity in hell

Going down the stairs follow my voice

Feel the evil words I say

You surely don't have to be afraid

I will only rescue you, I rescue you

Going down into the depths of my empire

I will lead you on your way

Misery, no escape, captivity

Misery, no escape, captivity in hell

[Chorus:]

It is the passion of the night

The fascination when souls are burning

Seducer in the dark

I am the master of the souls

Going down the stairs follow my voice

I will dash your hope of life

You surely don't have to be afraid

I will take your soul today, I rescue you

I am the evil one I'm damned in hell

My only obsession is when souls are burning

I am the ruler of the dark land

This is my curse, I am the master of the souls

Going down the stairs follow my voice

I will dash your hope of life

You surely don't have to be afraid

I will take your soul today, I take your soul

Going down into the depths of my empire

I will burn your soul in hell

Going down into the depths of my empire

I will burn your soul in hell

Misery, no escape, captivity

Misery, no escape, captivity in hell

[Chorus]
