It's so strange running in to you
After all these years I've never seen you
So I heard you even got a child a new man is it really true
I could never understand you, guess I only tried to love
And even though it's been a while can't seem to hide
This pain I feel inside
So tell me how can I forgive you,
For the rainy days the hell you put me through If I take another chance will you promise me that you'll never leave?

How can I believe you
Everything you say how can I believe you
How can I believe you
All these years alone how can I trust you Baby I promise, that I'll never leave you mean so much to me
Baby I promise, if you take another chance
I'll be the love that'll make you happy

You've always been the one
Never meant to go away for so long
But I was so afraid of love, easier to walk away
And yeah I know I got a man, He'll never understand where I'm coming from Tell me what do I do, I look into your eyes and only want you
Words can't tell you, what you're telling me baby
How I used to love you, baby I'm sorry

Girl I got something I wanna tell you,
Boy I got some things I wanna tell you
