Where you been, were you by yourself
Oh you don't recall, do you need some help
I saw you, you were with him
And you told me he was just a friend
So how you gon' tell me, that you've been faithful to me
I loved you, gave you all of me, putted my trust in you oh silly me

Now you tell me you love me, lie lie lie
Tell me how you need me, lie lie lie
Say you can't live without me, right right right
What you think I'm some kinda fool
What you gonna do without me, righth righth right
If you can't live without me, die die die
What you gon' call your mummy, right right right
Just say it to my face, yeah I cheated on you

Tell me how you gonna deal with that Tell me how you gonna try to keep it real with that How you gonna play me I'ma react Tell me tell me baby baby how you gonna be real with that

Go pack your things, I'll get the van
Oh no I forgot you got another man
So call him up, tell him you're all his I pity him
Cause one day, you'll come home to him
And he'll ask you, baby where you been
What you gon' say, what you gon' do?
I don't care cause now I'm through with you baby

I used to love you
I would do anything for you
Now it seems our love is past
And everything I said girl I take it all back
