"Long Kiss Goodnight"

We pull over, in front of your gate
At the end of a good date
It's time to drop you off at home
You've been quiet, but you're maybe just tired
And I know this moment
Is so intense for both of us

I'm nearly caught in this chemistry
(There's no use anymore)
Fighting this feeling it's killing me
I can't ignore

I'm so in love
And after this long kiss goodnight I'm yours
I can tell how it's building up
Trembling inside this feeling I can't shake it
Feels so right, 'cause of this long kiss goodnight

Here we both are, parked in your driveway
Words don't come easy

I'm waiting for this moment
And this is what it comes down to
I don't know if I should make a move
Or wait for you, I just can't decide
