What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
Torn apart
I'm all worn out

Afraid to play
The game portrayed
Hard to maintain
Hard to sustain
I tried so hard
I gave my soul
But in return, left me all alone

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
Torn apart, (torn apart)
I'm all worn out

So here we are
But far apart
Some roses are laid
My bills are paid
The things we said
The things I've done
Some branches burn
So much I have learned

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
Torn apart, (torn apart)
I'm all worn out

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind

One step behind
Torn apart
Cause I'm all worn out

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
Torn apart, (torn apart)
I'm all worn out

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
And I'm all worn out
(Said I'm all worn out, yeah yeah)

What I sacrificed
Being in your life
I'm walking blind
One step behind
I'm all worn out
