

Burning Airlines

"Aurora"

Visit "Aurora" on MotoLyrics.com

Are you comfortable with the skin you're in?
Are you screaming loud enough to be important?
Are you following the path that you thought you would or wouldn't?
And you backed it all along when you're pulling from what's inside; it's honest there.

It took all these nights alone.
Alone we are.

Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Your lipstick-stained life is arriving. (It does arrive, Fly)

So at ease with the night that we drove along.
From the top of the hill where we don't go.
And the stop where we claim our life, our place,
forever.
And we dreamt it all along, from the nights when the light stayed alive, we shared.

It took all these nights alone.
Alone we are.

Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Your lipstick-stained life is arriving. (It does arrive, Fly)
Your lipstick-stained life is arriving. (It does arrive, Fly)

In hope I speak your name for closure.
By a thread we'll hang, to never give in.

Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Aurora, don't leave me yet.
Your lipstick-stained life is arriving.
Your lipstick-stained life is arriving.
(Tonight may be the last night in these shoes.)

