

Burning Brides "Century Song"

Visit "Century Song" on MotoLyrics.com

Riding on down the open road
I'm on a straight line
Yeah I was on my way to the holy ghost
When the devil rolled by

From the fire to the ashes the angels call
To find a home
Didn't know what I had had till I found it gone
Now I'm waiting all day long

For a century song
I'll sit and wait for a century song

Write it all down before you die
The lesson I'm learning
Yeah I was soaking wet in a cold black lie
That I couldã, 've been burning

Like a choir from the rifle the bullets sing
To find a home
I don't care whatever you think the future brings
That'll only take too long

Like a century song
I'll sit and wait for a century song

From the fire to the ashes the angels call
To find a home
Didn't know what I had had till I found it gone
Now I'm waiting all day long

For a century song
I'll sit and wait for a century song

Like a century song
I'll sit and wait for a century song

Visit Burning Brides page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.