Remember me?
Vices became my virtues
They weighed heavy on my mind
Fearful I've lost every essence of, essence of time
Can I find the courage to quell this despair?
Now I'm finding it hard to stay strong
And this isn't helping me move on

Doctor please stop this medicine
I want to feel real again
Let me feel like I can (feel like I can)
Doctor don't stop this medicine
I want to know who I am
Let me feel like I can

Remember me?
Darkness begins my days
It's not what I wanted to say
But more to what I'm not willing to share
My world is now empty and bare
This isn't obvious
In which it's written down
Behind this
Behind this analysis

Doctor please stop this medicine
I want to feel real again
Let me feel like I can (feel like I can)
Doctor don't stop this medicine
I want to know who I am
Let me feel like I can

I ask myself
Just to try
Try sometimes, you'll be just fine
I ask myself (I ask myself)
Just to try (just to try)
Try so hard (I'm trying so hard)
You'll be just fine (you'll be just fine)

Doctor please stop this medicine

I want to feel real again
Let me feel like I can (feel like I can)
Doctor don't stop this medicine
I want to know who I am
Let me feel like I can
