Don't break this heart
don't break this heart
Down by the riverside
oh i love a girl
all i know i love a girl
I love her so,
i really, really...
She could be from africa she could be from america she could be from jamaica
All i know i love a girl
i love her so,
i really, i really care Don't break this heart that love you
and neither tear it apart i love you, oh yes, it's true i will hold you tight tonight Have something real nice to say,
have something real nice to say, we will hold hands in hands we will sing, i tell you, happy songs. we will be, i tel you, side by side
down the beautiful riverside
