You know where we are coming from original?

In the name of Jah, Jah

This is the time when we should own each other together
This is the time when we should own each other
together

No more disowning each other

West Indians, black Americans
West Indians, black Americans

You know where we are coming from original?
You know where we are coming from original?

Africa, yes Africa
Africa, yes Africa

In the name of Jah, Jah
