Like a newborn child
Coming in from the cold
Take him in and wrap him up now
Then I will disappear to you
Say goodbye to your nice bed
[?]
No more are you free now
Dreaming
How long till you waste away
Ticking down the time we'll see
No more are you free now
I am right
As i stand right here forever, yeah
Never give up a fight
And I never forget no one

So long as though you find your thoughts your own
Never knowing what you will find
[?]...Youre on youre own
Dreaming
How long till I waste away
Ticking down the time we'll see
No more are you free now
No way
I won't wait nowhere
For no one, no
Outta my fucking mind
Crazy for you
But I will die all by myself
Dreamer
Waiting for the time to win her
Love
Long and cold is my time
(Indecipherable screams)
Over and under...[?]
(One more scream)
