Reload your guns and weapons
You can make a difference
Damned in aeon

Woke up in ruins of centuries
Caustic raindrops burn it's way
Through flesh and bones
Pray to the sounds of a war machine
Just pretend and don't understand

Do you really want to live like this?

Remember what has been taken

Death is release no god
Death is release no god
No god

Don't forget to live in this solitude
Don't forget to live now

Do you really want to live like this?

Don't forget to live in this solitude
Don't forget to live now

Do you really want to live like this?

Reload your guns and weapons
You can make a difference
Reload your guns and weapons
You can make a difference

I never give up without trying
I never leave without to attempt
I never give up without trying
I never leave without to attempt
I never felt so alive
