Every-time I try to be myself
It's so hard to realize that
'Cause everybody just wants to see
Another person than me

But you don't look in my eyes
You can't see through my skin

The paradigm breaks my bones (breaks my bones)
Another scar on my surface

Can you hear it?
Can you feel it?
Can you smell it?
Can you taste it?

They always tried to hurt me
But they don't made it
Nothing can kill me now
Shameless!
I will crush you down

Now I scream it out for you
You hate me and I hate you
You can't judge me 'cause you don't know
Who I am and what I do

I'm just a guy who wants to be loved
Try to do the right and the best for you all
But all I do is wrong and broken
All your hearts, all your hearts
