I say you say we say no
It's out of control
I say you say we say yeah
We don't care

It's hard to breathe and difficult to see
I'm trapped between a truth and a lie
How could this be my life?
Never questioned why did I let this happen to me
No way out
I stuck inside of my creation of chaos
No way out
I stuck inside of my creation of chaos

Open the fire and let the bridges burn
Open the fire and let the bitches burn

My truth is a lie
My escape from reality
Freedom in a melody

Collect the dust of ages and feed it to our nation
Injection, distraction, the only way out

Open the fire and let the bridges burn
Open the fire and let the bitches burn

I say you say we say no
It's out of control
I say you say we say yeah
We don't care

Take this take that you won't regret
Don't lay down with tears and agony
There is nothing to death
It's just stepping over to another place
What will happen to us if we keep on living like this?
If we keep on living like this?
How many times did you felt like shit?

Lets fuck to forget and drink to loose
Lets die to escape from here

Say goodbye escape reality
Say goodbye escape reality

I say you say we say no
It's out of control
I say you say we say yeah
We don't care
I say you say we say no
It's out of control
I say you say we say yeah
We don't care
