Can you fly high up enough to see the sun?
Six Million people are crossing the edge
I will never be the same, I will never be the same again
The hatred returns, we burn

I'm feeling like a king
I'm so unbreakable
I am the chosen one
I am the king
I am the chosen one
I'm feeling like a king
I'm so unbreakable
I am the king

Every single word you say is poison
Now, a punch on the floor, it's distortion
This is where I will stand (you earn)
This is where I will stand (we burn)

I'm feeling like a king
I'm so unbreakable
I am the chosen one
I am the king
I am the chosen one
I'm feeling like a king
I'm so unbreakable
I am the king

Do you hear them crawling?
Do you hear them falling?

We are rising up from the Underground (Underground)
We are rising up from the Underworld (Underworld)

I am the chosen one
I'm feeling like a king
I'm so unbreakable
I am the king
