Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
And light up this darkness
I will fight for everything
I will fight for all the things
I stand for and everything I am
Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
And light up this darkness
So fight for everything
So fight for all the things
You stand for and everything you are

Slowly
Drifting into something hateful
Reborn as a beast
Arise from the ground
To become someone else
Turn your heart into a stone
Everything will taste the same
And only the strong will survive

One on one and face to face will we send our souls to devil
One on one and face to face will we destroy in madness

Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
And light up this darkness
I will fight for everything
I will fight for all the things
I stand for and everything I am
Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
And light up this darkness
So fight for everything
So fight for all the things
You stand for and everything you are

Is there something watching from underneath the surface (the demons)

Is there something waiting for to tear down this rough face (the demons)
You are pushing me stronger and faster until I'm loosing control
Torture me harder and harder until I explode

Show me what you got
Show me what you got
We will swim in our blood

And I will find a way through this struggle
There is love all around us
And the worst will get better
If you wont stop thinking forward (forward)

Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
I will fight for everything
I stand for and everything I am
Don't stop to faith in you
Don't stop to face in us
