And what are we dying for?
See the sights of what's wrong and what's right
Fill your cup cause I'm up for a good fight
Rally your troops together
We call to arms tonight

Army of love

This purpose is worth it
We're weak without your love
We didn't deserve this
So throw down your guns
It's simple not stupid
But we seem to lose it
And fight in the army of love

Your heart's gotta beat this battle
Your heart's gotta win this war
What's living if you're killing?
And what are you dying for?
See the sights of what's wrong and what's right
Don't you know we're all in this fight?
You fall, we fall together
We call to arms tonight

Army of love

This purpose is worth it
We're weak without your love
We didn't deserve this
So throw down your guns
It's simple not stupid
But we seem to lose it
Fight in the army of love

My heart's gonna beat this battle
My heart's gonna win this war
What's living if we're killing?

Army of love
Army of love

This purpose is worth it
We're weak without your love
We didn't deserve this
So throw down your guns
It's simple not stupid
But we seem to lose it
Fight in the army of love
