No longer same, no longer human
You're everything that i need
And you pray for rain just to make it sunny
It's bad enough you can see, yeah

Who's power crazy
Who's hungry for honey
Who put a hole and taken less
I
I don't know why I must love money
I love you better when there's nobody else

Nothing to hold me, to hold me back
She turns around and give it right back
Am i always gonna be this blind
Am i always gonna be this...

These are the days, of broken tv
She comes the mirror thinks is look real nice, well..
Load up on sex, were movin' on inside
We see the light now we got real tight

I feel funny
You suck fine

Days, Broken tv
She comes the mirror, looks real nice, well
Load up on sex, movin' on inside
We see the light, got real tight

Hope to live
What you miss
