Crucified
For eternal sins
Re-invent myself
Shape my alter skin

Try to break the mold
Severed hold
First you find your threshold bevels
Breathing out your toxic levels

[?!?!?!]lung so rope is hangin
Now we know what's comin

Oh superman
Where have you gone
With a little more time
And a six leaf clover
Just a little more head
To make you bolder
Just a little more sound

Been playing tricks you know
She got sucked so dry

We destroy ourselves
To rise again
Open up yourself
Like a jesus son

Only way out is through
Way past you
First you get to human levels
Run right through your bullshit pedals

Lung so rope is hanging
Now we know what's coming

Oh superman
Where have you gone
With a little more time
And a six leaf clover

Just a little more head
To make you bolder
Just a little more sound
Just a little more sound

Been playing tricks you know
He got sucked so dry and you oughta know how to lose

Lung so rope is hanging

Oh superman
What have you done

With a little more time
And a six leaf clover
Just a little more head
To make you bolder
Just a little more sound
