Chorus:

You see it is what it is, that's when I take a moment and look, and see just how the light is shinin on me, see how we takin off, no matter how you try to stop it, see you can never take this from me, see somethin that you never knew is that i, cut from a different cloth.

See im different from most of you niggas how I was bred

All the way down in the DNA and the blood that I shed Down to shit I value and the love that I spread Then I realize our perspective is different from what I see in my head

Nowadays niggas get caught in the web Posin and frontin until you step to em and they regret what the said

Its funny how niggas that gamble with they life til they get hit up with led Examples is triflin I look em instead I continue my focus gettin my bread

Tell me where the fuck is your manners at lil' niggas
I swallow niggas like yall, fall on niggas like yall
Don't know what ur doin but im sorry for niggas like yall Look, why you wonderin why im sayin what im sayin Maybe if you would listen you smart, you probably realize I aint dissin

Just distinguish the difference how it conditions see I was conditioned

to be that nigga to create a plan and instated yall been conditioned to study and follow the plan I created identify me as one of the greatest

Chorus

Wait! (wait wait wait) hold on! Let me continue to get you to the to grow on Being that most of you lack the ability to make hits or so on

Guess whos back the powerful impact Soon as I drop people wanna go run out in the streets and get dat

And run right back to they truck and bust off the rappers sick from how I spit dat So appreciate it now people made it this thing I do seem like its the greatest From a thought that was created successfully forced through all of the hatred By givin you that special music that bring the heart of the now and the sequal
The soul of the hood and the votes of the people
The streets be the range and my bran while I struggle to keep a balance and equal By givin yall bangers that everybody gon' love We gotta master this, just had to captivate him and make him throw up Niggas rilin from stadiums to low clubs See when I come and make my return I school you
Obtaining that information you need to come and just study my statements No replies, just identify me as one of the greatest, the greatest, the greatest

Chorus
