Chorus:

Watch me get down and just do my thing baby *5

Oh let me do my thing baby

Watch me get down and just do my thing baby *2

Open up your door

Let me on in,

I just be wonderin'

If i could do my thing baby

Yo, think fast before I get all in your ass

In your frame like plexiglass

You motherfuckers be actin' like you

Don't know the half

You and your whole staff make me laugh

Ha ha ha ha ho

Yo, you need to sing my song

With your similar features like Olivia Newton-John

Damn, oh! I make the whole place warm

Then hit you with some shit that make you niggas look deformed

Now, stay tuned to every Busta Rhymes

Coming soon, I will King-Kong on niggas like gorilla monsoon soon

Yo, what seems to be the whole analyses

Busta Rhymes just be ripping shit like miraculas

Bang you on your head so hard, shit be forming callouses

Let be get this loot so we can move up in these palaces

Chorus

When I step in the place

You should keep your mouth closed

Take your fat finger out your nose

You should just pay attention

And watch how I wild on records

Make you sing "The Lord is my sheperd"

In the process I do away with all nonsense

Hit you with magic like my name was Pocahontas

The dred gon' make you party 'till you dead

Niggas quick to talk shit ,oops!, upside your head

Put your head to bed

Let me do my thing
'nuf said
Shit so hot make your chicken head do the spread
Tell me what you said
I said I never lead you mislead
While you bullshit
I rather get the loochie instead
Ha, hu, ha, he, ha
Flip until you fall
Wilin' on your wit
'till you crash into a brick wall
Through the 96
I be the nigga that be priceless
Always blowing up your spot
Bringin more surprises
You, you know you really need to come clean
Let me do my thing
Don't you even try to interveen
I will endanger your species like an ostrich
Hold you hostage
And crazy feed you swat sausage
Ha!
I be the #1 chosen just to keep you open
To rip your thoughts I got your brain frozen
Pay the prices made the needed sacrifices
To present the grand opening of Flipmode Enterprises

Chorus to end
