MEANS...
WAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRR!!

I work hard to take care
Of every one of my niggers
Feel the love and appreciation
From all of my niggers
When I think
Meditate
And contemplate for my soul
Watch the truth manifest
Once the story unfold
Disloyal motherfuckers
I'm-a banish you all
And celebrate all in your absence
Once I get rid of y'all
Sometimes I can't describe
The wicked shit I feel in my heart
Break my silence and Sporadically tear you apart
Strike with a serious vengeance
And before you die
Put you through the worst
And make you take a look in my eye
So you could witness the extreme damage
Caused by betrayal
Make you sorry for the fact
That you attempted and failed
Make you eternally suffer
You was one of my mens
Turn your back on me
And I'ma make sure you get it back
Times ten
(Stay true!)

Now that's the one thing
I religiously pledge
If you ain't with me
I'ma throw you way over the edge

THIS MEANS WAR!!

(Ozzy Osbourne)

Take a look inside
You can run
And you can hide
If you cross my path
I'll make sure
You feel my wrath
Give and you receive
Cherish every
Breath you breathe
Scriptures
On the wall
Those who betray
All must fall

(BR)

As I cherish every blessing
And I greet you with hugs
You my peoples, when I see you
I embrace you with love
Yeah, I be the one to come
And get you out of the hole
Yeah, you be the one to run
And leave me out in the cold
So amazing how many times
You plot and you scheme
But what you don't realize
You'll never conquer my dream
Though devilish karma
Can't penetrate the steel in my armor
Time passed, my oppression
Got you living with trauma
Paranoid of my retaliation
Living in fear
Disloyalty will have me kill my brother
Shedding a tear
Such a shame how you could easily
Get trapped in a zone
And have to go to war with fake niggers
Standing alone
Until I get with all my loyal niggers
Going the length
Don't matter how hard you try
You never weaken my strength
Now I'm with all of my loyal niggers
Breaking the bread
And if you diss the code of honor
We taking yo' head

THIS MEANS WAR!!

(OO)

Take a look inside
You can run
And you can hide
If you cross my path
I'll make sure
You feel my wrath
Give and you receive
Cherish every
Breath you breathe
Scriptures
On the wall
Those who betray
All must fall

(WAR!!) Nobody helps him
(Ha, ha, ha!) Now he has his revenge

(BR)

Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Whatchyou gonna do?
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Whatchyou gonna do?

Where you think
You can run
Or you can hide?
Where you think
You can run
Or you can hide?
Where you think
You can run
Or you can hide?
Where you think
You can run
Or you can hide?

I'ma be the best to show love
Let's co-operate
Disloyalty is somethin
That we won't tolerate
Deal with these niggers
Let's put them where they properly go
On the island far away

In a place where nobody know
So long fighting the bullshit
For so many years
Watching the danger and niggers
Double crossing their peers
Yes, I always fight
For what is right
And put my foot down
Disrespect my love
I'ma be laying you down

THIS MEANS WAR!

(OO)

Take a look inside
You can run
And you can hide
If you cross my path
I'll make sure
You feel my wrath
Give and you receive
Cherish every
Breath you breathe
Scriptures
On the wall
Those who betray
All must fall
