Uh, somebody loves me too
I guess I always knew I'd find someone like you
So doggone sweet and true

My, my, oh, me, oh, my you're the reason why I'll love you till the day I die My, oh, my

Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me can't you see you gave me, can't ya see you made me, yeah
Honey, please, honey, can't you see what you gave to me, yeah, yeah, yeah can't ya see you made me, yeah

Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me
can't you see you made me, can't ya see you gave me Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me
can't you see you made me, can't ya see , oh, honey, please, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

In all this time Ive been Lost in the world without end Till the day you came into my life
And you made it right

Oh, yeah
Oh
Oh

Honey, please, that's what you have gave me that's what you made me, that's how you saved me
Honey, please. that's what you have gave me
that's what you have made me, honey, that's what you have gave me, yeah

Honey, please, that's what you have made me that's what you gave me, that's how you saved me

[Honey, please, can't you see you saved me

[Cant you see you made me, can't you see you gave me]

Yeah, yeah, ah, yeah, yeah

Ah, yeah, yeah, yeah, ow, my baby, my baby

[Honey, please, can't you see you saved me

[Cant you see you made me, can't you see you gave me]

[Honey, please, can't you see you saved me

[Cant you see you made me, can't you see you gave me]

[Honey, please, can't you see you saved me

[Cant you see you made me, can't you see you gave me]

[Honey, please, can't you see you saved me

[Cant you see you made me, can't you see you gave me]

[Honey, please]
