Pardon me, your good ol' paycheck is showing (Mike)
I couldn't help but note the lack of "zeroes" there
I flip my lid over what I do not get
Cause I see (that) Scott doesn't even care
We gotta come together, and pull a giant Navy Seal
(Chorus)
*We're Summer Staffers, and we live in Victory Hall
We live where guys and girls can't share the same floor
We have history full of volleyball
And we are Summer Staffers who decorate each others' doors*
A day in pantry is only the beginning
We take on charecter with every Navy Seal

This thing of beauty is called "Melvin's clothes heist."
By Scott's design, we have lights out... GET REAL!
We gotta come together, aren't we all related after all?
(Chorus)
Ignorance has wronged some pranks
And vengeance is 220's
If we aspire to own fish (tanks)
S and C are plenty
Well, just a day in the shoes of a conference guest
Should make it easy for you to see
That these wacko rules do more than make us druel
As a part of our environment
