Everyone has a problem in their life
Even the grown up, and their wives
This is the only thing, that you could do
Hear the next line, and then you find a clue

Everybody got to learn
How to be smart enough.
So they got to turn
Around their head, that's what I thought

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say.
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine.

Every step you take, will make a change
It's gonna go good, if you keep beeing on your range
You have to be brave and self-assured
That's enough, and you don't have to say a word.

Everybody have to see
What they are deep inside
It's okey with me
Cause I know that's a better side

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say.
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine.

SOLO

[*Drums and guitar*]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say.
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine.

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way

And not think about what the others say.
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine.
You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say.
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine.
