"Your Presence"

It's funny how You'll say my name
Like a thought in motion love is not a game that can be played
It's crazy how you read my mind
Like a twisted thought of reasoning, Your words are so divine

Chorus:

I want to be in Your prescence
I want to be where You are Come give me grace for this moment
I want to be found where you are Looking for this promised land

My attempts they seem to fail
I'm sinking in this desert land
I feel like Moses wandering around
Except that not like Him,
I can not seem to find myself a cloud

Chorus

Come and start a fire and let me be your flame
I need to know that you are with me
I want to hear you call my name
