Sitting in this lonely room surrounded by my friends Empty liquor bottle, is this how its supposed to end Yeah, you left me standin here, well Im a broken man You can watch for me all alone cause Im driftin in the wind
There it goes again and you turn your back one me Push, it came to shove and you turn around and set me free
You promise me your love but I guess it was all pretend Watch for me me passin by Ill be friftin in the wind, in the wind
When we both started out, we were the best of friends Now Im sittin here all alone with my four walls closin in Never thought I would go this way and Id die by a trigger sin
You can watch for me all alone and Im driftin in the

Chorus

Well I just could not take no more, you made my life no fun
So tomorrow theyll lay me down and theyll throw away my gun
But can you taste the powder now, baby, can you taste my eveil sin
Im just out here all alone and Im driftin in the wind

Chorus
