But you know baby that you know it's a lie
I'll tell you baby we can go for a ride
If you hold me, from searching for experience of mind
The mood will hit me if you're horny too
But if I showed you how I'm getting off from you Baby would you think it's alright
And to know you can love baby if we do fine Till the dawn when the world takes you by the broken thine
And we're shinning like, pieces of whose common too
As you push into drive at the risk of your life
On the dream of the night where your love comes to drive
Oh it's lonely, but you can be in love too
