Drifting in a tide of emotion my state of minds got me spinning round upside down I'm tumbling to the ground ahh yeah and everytime I call you up to communicate my feelings you just back me out scream and shout now your out of control ahh yeah

Ain't crazy ain't strange how our lifes are rearranged things will never be the same again no

Deep down can you hear what I'm saying I found that there's another waying right now can you hear what I'm saying deep down deep down deep down there's a word that describes it somehow I guess I'll never find it
deep down deep down

Guess I'll just ponder on my thought's just like the night before all the love we use to share it's killing me that you don't care ahh yeah it's gonna be a long road with twists and turns, lessons learnt, bridges burnt

I guess it's just the way it goes ahh yeah

Ain't crazy ain't strange
things will never be the same again no

Deep down can you hear what I'm saying
deep down there's a word that describes it
deep down deep down

Deep down deep deep down

deep down deep down

deep down deep down deep deep down
