These trees have almost reached the sky
And who was I to tell this fucking lie
You will never betray me
Your all so shady fuck all you kids
These trees have almost reached the sky
And who was I to tell this fucking lie
I been thinking about you at one day
At two different times, or maybe it was all a dream
It was all a dream, this stories getting old and my Coffees getting cold.but know that no one ever
Gave a fuck, these trees have almost reached the sky
And who the fuck was I. to tell this lie.
You'll be lied to a million and three more times
This is hi and bye.
But this just ain't your day.
There's no truth in the world we live in You'll tell this lie a thousand times.
Fuck you your nothing, what the fuck you think that you deserve
Your worth nothing you think you deserve. oh,
And you think I never guess but oh yeah I did
And you tell the same fuckin thing every single time
