"I just died in your arms tonight
it must have been something you said..

v1:

yo I really wanna know what was said last night when you didn't wake up i was all up in a fright i didn't know why you took it that way it's not how i meant, i just didn't know how to say that i was a little worried we wouldn't fall through but your beautiful smile, it couldn't have a clue and now all of it don't matter now cuz your gone but i'll always remember you as my number one and all the good times we had together they'll all be kept safe in my heart forever now i keep wishin' we did a whole lot more but it looks like i'll be lookin' for what's in store i'm gonna miss you now, such a terrible change somethin i wish i could have re arranged but it's over now and there's nothing i can do cept sit here and write songs just for you

"I just died in your arms tonight

v2:

i couldn't believe it, why did you have to die?
5 seconds ago we were lookin' eye to eye the times past now, but look at me i still want you in my arms close as can be you taught me things but most important is love you showed me that it's only sent from up above and the love we shared was the only thing i had now i try to live my days without feelin' sad where are you now? i hope you live in peace living without you keeps me up for days and weeks matter of fact, i don't know how i'm still livin' i really just hope that i'm forgiven i'm praying about it everyday that i strive and i wanna believe that that you're still alive

cept sit here and do this song for you

"I just died in your arms tonight
it must have been something you said..
