You're the one that I ran to
You had no rival
You were my Bible
More fire than flame

All the loving you gave me
That one-off feeling
Left while we were sleeping
Then down came rain

We're praying, come back love
Come back, all's forgiven
Come back love
We still burn more fire than flame

More fire than flame
More fire than flame
More fire

You're the stop that I came to
The good time station
With no regulation
And no masquerade

All you have aroused in me
Is my suspicion
By your own admission
Your eyes have strayed

We're praying, come back love
Come back, all's forgiven
Come back love
We still burn more fire than flame

More fire than flame
More fire than flame
More fire

Come back, come back love
Come back, come back
Come back, come back love
Come back, come back

You have been good for me
I never said it
You deserve more credit
I still need you
I still need you

So won't you come back love?
Come back, all's forgiven
Come back love
We still burn more fire than flame

More fire than flame
We keep burning more fire than flame
More fire than flame
We still burn more fire than flame
More fire than flame
We keep burning

So won't you come back love?
Come back, all's forgiven
Come back love
We still burn more fire than flame
