You don't have to be so strong
Don't move mountains for me
Don't slay a dragon
Every time you run back here
You are more than a knight in shining armour
Who would need a prince...
Anyway i don't believe in fairy tales
Let's leave them for the dreamers
There is something much more real i'm after--

Simple pleasures--bliss i finally found
In ordinary home-made treasures
On familiar ground
When i'm with you--the time's so precious
Hours flying past
We've got to take some long-term measures
So simple joy is here to last

Don't go yet...
I'll be missing your smile,
Your gentle voice, so soothing...
Very night and day i will long for the warmth
Of your embrace
So who would need a prince
Anyway i don't believe in fairy tales
Let's leave them for the dreamers
There is something much more real i'm after--

Simple pleasures
