Close your eyes and you're right there, ooh
Close your eyes and you're right there, ooh

When you're feeling lost and lonely
And when people treat you coldly
(Close your eyes and you're right there)
Close your eyes, you're right there

When you think there's nothing up there
When a doubt becomes a nightmare
(Close your eyes and you're right there)
Close your eyes, you're right there

You can escape this place
You can forget this place
Any where's better, kinder, brighter

Two islands, two islands
They'll take you to their hearts, my islands
Nowhere so peaceful, nowhere as blissful
I will always remember my two islands with love
They will never grow old

When your week is made of Mondays
When your road is going sideways
(Close your eyes and you're right there)
Close your eyes, you're right there

When you swim against the current
And your arms are getting tired
(Close your eyes and you're right there)
Close your eyes, you're right there

You can escape this place
You can forget this place
Any where's better, kinder, brighter

Two islands, two islands
They wait for me, I know my islands
Nowhere so peaceful, nowhere as blissful
I will always remember my two islands with love
They will never grow old

They came to us for a reason
Leaving memories we can lean on
(Close your eyes and you're right there)
Close your eyes, you're right there

One day if I go to heaven
We will be again together
Far away from here
(Your island, your island)
My two islands wait for me
(Your island)

Nowhere so peaceful, nowhere as blissful
I will always remember my two islands with love
They will never grow old

Nowhere so peaceful, nowhere as blissful
I will always remember my two islands with love
They will never grow old

Your island
