Keep on dreaming, keep on believing
There's no cloud on your horizon
What a day to dare

'Cause if this game won't break us
It will make us stronger
It's not a place to be faint hearted
Fortune loves the brave

You know, that we can't all be winners
God only knows how hard we try
Different odds, a different ball game
Our time will come

But we are winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today
It's the way that we play the game

Winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today
It's the way that we play the game

Give your best shot
Show what you're made of
Learn to fight against all odds
And prove you can survive

'Cause it's a game of two halves
Hold your faith undaunted
Now and then the perfect match
So keep this dream alive

You know, that we can't all be winners
God only knows how hard we try
Different odds, a different ball game
Our time will come

But we are winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today

It's the way that we play the game

Winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today
It's the way that we play the game

You know, that we can't all be winners
God only knows how hard we try
Different odds, a different ball game
Soon our time will come

Winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today
It's the way that we play the game

Winners today
It's the way that we play
We are winners today
It's the way that we play the game

We are
Oh, we are winners today
