The Band Played,
No one moved
They could not find the groove
I knew that wouldn't last
Someone had to act fast
I took the mike for a moment
And that's when i sang..
Whoa
Hey,
This is no talent show
And the floor is ready to go
I know you want to dance
So come on while we have a chance
Whoaaaa.....
All I heard was a cough
I started to walk off
Then people wanted more
As they all rushed the floor
I told the band to follow
That's when I sang..
Whoa
Hey
This is no talent show
And the floor is ready to go
I know you want to dance
So come on while we have a chance
Whoa.....
Whoa
This is no talent show
And the floor is ready to go
I know you want to dance
So come on while we have a chance
Whoaaa.....
