Before I die

I want to live in New Zealand
And ride a boat beside a whale
Giving birth in the sea
I want to spend the night
On the beach of an island
Lulled to sleep by the sound
Of the pulse of the earth.

Before I die

I want to dance in the moonlight
When no one is watching
And we are unseen
A blanket of stars above
And a grass carpet under us
And you and I are all
Sandwiched in between.

Refrain:

Speak your dreams
Dare to embrace them
Dare to find joy in the fact
That adventure lies ahead
Speak your dreams
Give voice to your passion
Sing praise to the Maker of dreams
And thank Him for giving you dreams.

Before I die

I want to have my wn garden
I want to talk out and pick
The ripe cherries off a tree
I want to sail the Amazon
And explore a jungle
And find a new bug and then
Name it after me.

Refrain

Refrain

Speak your dreams
Dare to embrace them
Dare to find joy in the fact
That adventure lies ahead
Speak your dreams
Take part in the search
Sing praise to the Maker of dreams
And thank Him for giving you dreams.
