I want to be in love forever
Like a fairytale come true
Thought I'd be in love, but never
With anyone else but you

The sun will set, to arise again
And my love moves the stars
Passion still burning in my veins
Just to love you forever

Dreamt I'd be, in love forever
Like a memory that never dies
The moment of truth, will it be now or never?
Only time can make sense out of love

Day after day after day, getting longer
Stronger in every way
Moment draws not,
I must whisper I love you
Just a matter of time

Dreamt I'd be, in love forever
Like a candle that burns for all time
The moment of truth, will it be now or never?
Only love can make sense out of love

I want to be, in love forever
Like a candle that burns for all time
The moment of truth, will now or never?
Only love can make sense out of love

I want to be in love forever
Like a candle that burns ever bright
The moment of truth,
It must be now or never
What if now was to be our last night?

I want to be, in love forever
Like a candle that burns ever bright
The moment of truth
It must be now or never
What if now was to be our last night?
