Can you can you twist me up yet again? A Chemical kiss from you princess pretend that, this isn't what you wanted girl we all know this is what you wanted girl. To fall into friction hold on to addiction and never let go of your perfect affliction the break downs apparent like a note wrote you'll tear it apart with a smile you can bet I'll be counting the miles.

Bite your tongue and forget to breathe, Go ahead yeah make me believe that, this isn't what you wanted girl we all know this is what you wanted girl.

Dada da da (3x)

This is where we fall out this is where it breaks down, again and again, you are where it begins and this is where it ends. Yeah

I can't explain this, shake this, fake this, face down may be the only way out, Alive this time, I tried to survive the look in your eyes to no suprise they're far from dry, tears of regret with this pen I'll forget, your name, your name.

This is where we fall out this is where it breaks down, again and again, you are where it begins and this is where it ends.

This is where we fall out

This is where it breaks down

This is where

We fall out

Ill forget your name and, Ill forget you name
