Step back Whoa and say goodbye too, innocence and elegance no back is safe no breath is sacred. Take this chance to make this last (step up, step up) were hanging on to fallacies of morality (get up, get up) Save yourself Save me

Eyes wide with the secrets we tell you say you don't smile but you wear it so well, convince me that you are someone else

We insist that you fake this, don't stay so complacent, just step out line and the fear will replace it the emptiness inside convictions that you hide so innocent so elegant

someone else , Save it for a sucker (sucker) this is the call out yeah this is the call out convince me that you are someone else

Hey, your words they are weapons so sharp with our deceptions oh so oh so. Oh so dramatic my voice like static cutting out constantly well maybe its you maybe its me.

Maybe it's me, maybe it's me. Your words they are weapons so sharp with our deception oh so oh so.

someone else
