I heard you were talking to all your friends
About how you got me right where you want me yet again
Well I've got news for you
I'm not into what you do
And I've been spinning around my head to find a way out

I'll be me and you'll be you
I've had enough to see the truth
I'll be me and you'll be you
I've had enough to see the truth

I can hear your voice now singing whoa
Let me feel your heartbeat sing it back

You got me twisted, so tied and conflicted
Yea you had your chance to hold me
But darling you just missed it

I'll be me and you'll be you
I've had enough to see the truth
I'll be me and you'll be you
I've had enough to see the truth

I can hear your voice now singing whoa
Let me feel your heartbeat sing it back

Tell me what you're dreaming of
Is it really perfect with him by your side?
I hope this melody sparks a memory
Will you remember the sound of my voice?

I can hear your voice now singing whoa
Let me feel your heartbeat sing it back
