And I've got a secret I didn't want to do this
You don't understand how long I've fought the battle
I'm tired of these phone calls every night
"Please I just need a ride"
It's so ridiculous and difficult I always seem to try

All the witty quotes from all our favorite songs
Turned out to be just dead end roads
So turn up the radio and go, just drive home

Start Fresh I'm beginning to get over this
Yesterday feels like miles away
Start fresh you're better off alone
It's not my problem call your friends girl
I'll be at home

And I've got a feeling in my bones it's not the weather
Sometimes the hardest part is finding something better than this
It's what you get, the feeling of having nothing left
Go fill another glass and drink yourself to happiness

All the witty quotes from all our favorite songs
Turned out to be just dead end roads
So turn up the radio and go, just drive home

Start Fresh I'm beginning to get over this
Yesterday feels like miles away (miles away)
Start fresh you're better off alone
It's not my problem call your friends girl
I'll be at home (I'll be at home)

Cause I've been up all night
You don't know wrong from right
I've been up all night
You don't know wrong from... Right

Start fresh I'm beginning to get over this
You'll never change
