Oh, seems like a day ago,
Not quite like the last;
And now I see him walking far away,
Blasting down the street tonight.

One more reason
It's a cold from the season.
And I know that she'll be pleasing me all night.

She takes all my pains away, (she takes all my pains
away)
Relieves all my cravings I'm craving at night.
She loves when I feel awake, (she loves when I feel awake)
She loves when I peel off her clothing at night.

Now, it's seeming like a ways away,
Right around the street.
And all a sudden, I was seein' her face;
She offers me a ride around.

One more reason
It's a cold from the season.
And I know that she'll be pleasing me all night.

She takes all my pains away, (she takes all my pains
away)
Relieves all my cravings I'm craving at night.
She loves when I feel awake, (she loves when I feel awake)
She loves when I peel off her clothing at night.
She takes all my pains away, (she takes all my pains
away)
Relieves all my cravings I'm craving at night.
She loves when I feel awake, (she loves when I feel awake)
She loves when I peel off her clothing at night.

(You think it's all),
You think it's all about you... about you.
(You think it's all),
You think it's all! about you.

(You think it's all!)
(You think it's all! about you.)
(You think it's all!)

She takes all my pains away, Relieves all my cravings I'm craving at night. (You think it's all!)

She loves when I feel awake, (About you.)

She loves when I peel off her clothing at night. (You think it's all!)

She takes all my pains away, (About you.)

Relieves all my cravings I'm craving at night. (You think it's all!)

She loves when I feel awake, (About you.)

She loves when I peel off her clothing at night.
